Wynne Arms: vert, three eagles displayed in fesse or.

Crest: an eagle displayed or.

The court hath requested and appointed Capt. John Woodlief and Mr. George Potter by the20th of the month to view and examinr the difference, between Capt. Robert Wynne for the estate of Mr. John Sloman, decd. and Mr. Francis Epes and Mr. Thomas Epes and to return their report to the next court. 1658.
Charles City Book, p. 162.

Robert Wynne came from Kent in England, where he had several houses in Canterbury and was burgess for Charles City County from 1658 to 1675, being during the entire existence of Virginia's Long Parliament (1661-1675), Speaker of the House of Burgesses. He married Mary, the widow of Capt. Francis Poythress and had two sons, Thomas and Joshua and a daughter, who married ----- Woodlief.

Robert Wynne was a Captain and Colonel of the Militia of Charles City County, and lived in Jordan's Parish in what was subsequently Prince George. His will was dated July 1, 1675 and Proved Aug. 15, 1678.

Robert Wynne of Jordan's Parish of Charles City County, in Virginia Gent. To be buried in Jordan's Church as near as possible to my son Robert. To son Thomas, eldest son, property in England, reversion to son Joshua, to daughter Woodlief; grandchild George Woodlief. Rest of estate to wife and Extx., Mary Wynne. Overseers, Thomas Grendon, merchant and my son-in-law Capt. Francis Poythress.
Wit. Thomas Brome, John Burge.

He was probably a grandson of Captain Peter Wynne, who came to Virginia with Capt. Newport on that officer's second voyage of relief to the colony. He arrived there in September 1608 and was immediately admitted to the Council. He died in the spring of 1609 and enjoyed the unique distinction of having been appointed deputy governor of Vitginia after his death.
Tyler's Quarterly, vol. XII, p. 173

Capt. Thomas Wynne the son of Col. Robert Wynne was living in Prince George in 1704, when the Quit Rent lists for the county, shows that he owned 400 acres of land. His deposition in 1707, shows that he was born about 1757.

He is entitled Captain and in 1702 he and his brother Joshua were appointed Indian interpreters to accompany the Nottoway and Meherrin commissioners on their trip north to make peace with the Seneca Indians. He resided in Surry County, where in 1708, he was a justice of the peace. Tyler's Q., vol. XII, p. 174.

(Given to show that his wife was Mary, since she was evidently dead, when his will was made.)

Will of Nathaniel Malone, of the Parish of Southwark: son Nathaniel land on the south side of Sappony Creek; son Drury the plantation on which I now live on Sappony Creek, Reedy Branch, Great Pond and Stony Creek with the reversion to my son Thomas; if he should die without heirs to my sons William and Nathaniel; son Thomas all my land adjoining that of my son Drury and William Harper's; son Daniel 200 acres on the Nottoway River and Tommaketon Swamp in Prince George; son-in-law Joseph Harper, 200 acres, being the upper part of my tract known as Tommaketon land; to daughter Amey (not 21). My dear Mrs Chapman,

Several years ago I corresponded with Dr Wm B. Hall of Selma, Ala., regarding several of our mutual family lines and he told me that you had done much work in Surry and Sussex records. At present, I do not want any research done but only to ask if you have ever worked on the Mapes or Malone families and if you happen to have anything in your files pertinent to my problems which I shall later outline. If you have my lines already worked please state price for same. If you do not have them maybe later I will want you to do some work in the court records so please let me also know your fee by the day.

My husband and I both enjoy doing research on our own lines and have ~~spent~~ several vacations in Virginia and North Carolina doing just that. The last time we were in Surry and Stokes, however, I did not know enough of my Moss family to locate them in Virginia. Even yet we do not have much but since there were many of the name in your vicinity and you are familiar with those records I thought possibly you already had much on that line.

My gt. gt. grandfather David Moss (wife Catherine ?) died 1794 en route from Warren Co. N.C. to ~~the~~ Warren Co. Ky. The first deed of David Moss in Warren Co. N.C. was in 1777 in which he refers himself of Brunswick Co. Va. There was in Brunswick Co. at that time a David Moss but his wife was Mary - who d. 1802 who could have been father of my David in N.C. as my David was only a middle-aged man when he died. Above mentioned David & Mary of Brunswick were also of Lunenburg & he was a Rev. Soldier. Now what branch of the Moss family these belong to I have not found but the more material I collect the more we are inclined to believe they were connected with Surry & Sussex (or Louisa - and since we have pretty well exhausted the Louisa records that leaves your section)

Regarding the Malones: my g.g.g. grandfather Hallony Malone, a Rev. Soldier, was born near Petersburg, Va., 1758. He m. Katie Lyon and emigrated to Sumner Co., Tenn. His father was Johann Malone whose will was prov. in Granville Co. N.C. 1775 & mentioned children Hallony ("Hal"), Melony, George, Nathaniel, Molly and Daniel; wife was Judith ("Judy") Coleman.

It is Johann's father Jenish. We have many Malone data but since the Lifewiddie & most of Prince Geo. records have been destroyed do not believe we will ever connect with Nathaniel Malone who m. Mary Boyne & whose will is in Surry 1732. And we believe he was Johann's grandfather thru sons Nath. & Daniel.

Johann & Judith Malone were in Lunenburg 1757 as shown by deed there.

Am also interested in learning the connection between the Jennings family of Lunenburg & vicinity and Duke family of Louisa. Think the Capt. Robt. Jennings who d. 1806 in Lunenburg was related closely to Elizabeth (?) who married Cosby Duke of Louisa (his wife Louisa 1778). We think Elizabeth was a Jennings.

I shall look forward with a great deal of pleasure to hearing from you and if knowing if you have anything in hand, bearing on my problems.

Very truly yours,

Mrs Ward C. Sumpter
